CONGRESSMAN CARLIN MAKES SPLENDID RUN

Carries City of Alexandria by Two to One and Sweeps County Clean, Winning in the Eighth District by a Total Majority of 5,734.

HON. CHARLES C. CARLIN

Whatever doubt there may have been concerning the general result of the election throughout the country on Tuesday, there was no opportunity given for any in the Eighth Congressional district, especially concerning Representative Carlin. The voters took particular care to settle that question beyond the peradventure of a doubt. In fact they appear to have swept away every trace of a doubt, as Mr. Carlin not only carried the city and every county in the district, but led President Wilson by 257 votes.

The results, given by counties, follow:

COMPLETE VOTE OF THE EIGHTH CONGRESSIONAL DISTRICT OF VIRGINIA IN THE GENERAL ELECTION, 1916.

....	Wilson vote	Hugh's vote	Carlin vote	Crup'r vote	Wilson maj.	Carlin maj.
Alexandria City	1038	364	1014	438	674	576
Alexandria County	448	351	652	369	97	283
Loudoun County	1453	430	1425	422	1023	1003
Fairfax County	1179	472	1255	441	707	814
Prince William County	760	189	771	185	571	586
Culpeper County	850	184	825	144	666	681
Fauquier County	1183	357	1174	364	826	810
Orange County	608	153	641	164	455	477
Louisa County	708	293	693	267	415	426
Stafford County	444	422	470	415	22	55
King George County	223	217	241	218	6	23
Totals	8894	3432	9161	3427	5462	5734

Total vote, Carlin, ... 9161 Total vote, Wilson, ... 8894
Total vote, Crupper ..... 3427 Total vote, Hughes, ... 3432
Carlin's Majority, ... 5734 Wilson's majority 5462
Carlin leads Wilson, ... 257.

The above shows that Mr. Carlin ran 267 votes ahead of President Wilson in the Eighth District, while Mr. Crupper ran five votes behind his ticket. Two years ago, Mr. Carlin's majority over Mr. Crupper was 4,029; this year his majority over Mr. Crupper is 5,734. The total vote of Mr. Carlin two years ago was 5,746; Mr. Crupper's total vote, 1,717. This year Mr. Carlin's total vote is 9,161, and Mr. Crupper's total vote, 3,427.

The two counties in the District which are usually considered Republican, are Stafford and King George, and the Democratic ticket carried both of these counties by small majorities. Mr. Wilson carrying Stafford by a majority of 22, and Mr. Carlin by a majority of 55. Mr. Wilson carried King George by a majority of 6, and Mr. Carlin by a majority of 23.

These are extremely complimentary figures for our Congressman and show that he is even stronger than the ticket throughout the entire Congressional District, while Mr. Crupper, his Republican opponent, is not quite as strong as the Republican party.

MUST FOLLOW DIRECTION.

Commissioners of revenue who do not follow the lawful instructions of the Auditor of Public Accounts although they are in conflict with the directions of the local boards of review, will be subject to a forfeiture of not less than $30 nor more than $50, according to an opinion made yesterday by Attorney-General John Garland Pollard. Any disregard shown by the commissioners will be followed by an action of the auditor against him and force his authority.

Several instances of the disregard of the authority of the State auditor by the acceptance of the directions of the local boards of review have come to the attention of Mr. Moore and yesterday he obtained the opinion of the Attorney-General to the effect that failure on the part of the commissioner to follow Mr. Moore's instructions would mean the forfeiture as called for under section 450 of the tax law, as stated.

SOCIALISTS POLLED A MILLION

Claim Three Congressmen and Thirty-five State Legislators.

New York, Nov. 10.—Nearly a million and a quarter votes were cast by Socialists Tuesday, according to New York leaders, who based their estimate on still incomplete returns. Up to today they said 1,200,000 had been accounted for.

The same leaders claimed official counts may show they elected three Congressmen, 35 State legislators, the mayor of Minneapolis, and several State candidates elsewhere. They claimed to have cast 65,000 votes in New York State alone.

In Milwaukee they say they elected the district attorney, sheriff, two State senators, and seven assemblymen. Although leaders admittedly were disappointed over the Congressional race of Eugene V. Debs in Indiana, they are highly elated over the fact that in three New York districts their candidates ran close seconds.

The meeting was led by Miss Edith Snowden.

The Circuit Court for the city, Judge J. B. T. Thornton, was occupied today in trying the case of Ponnet vs. the Southern Railway Co., a suit for $10,000 damages alleged to have been caused to plaintiff's property by smoke and soot from locomotives of the defendant company.

The Young Men's Sodality Lyceum Hall was filled to its utmost capacity last night, when an "Evening of Comedy and Song," was presented, under the direction of Miss Nannie Nevitt and Miss Ella Hill. Selections were given by the Holy Name Band, a comedy sketch by the Dramatic Club, of St. Mary's and several vocal solos and recitations. All numbers of the program were excellently rendered. During the intermission refreshments were dispensed.

Another voter of the democratic persuasion arrived in Alexandria last Tuesday morning. The permanent visitor is known as Woodrow Wilson Cook, son of Oscar Cook, electrician of the Washington Virginia Railway. The new arrival is a grandson of R. T. Cook.

The Alexandria High School football team will play against the Randolph-Macon, Front Royal, team tomorrow afternoon, at 2 o'clock on the High School grounds. Tickets can be procured from members of the local team, or admission paid at the gate, and it is hoped a large crowd will attend.

The night school had 54 in attendance Wednesday night, and the classes were organized. At the preliminary meeting Monday night the classes were not very clearly defined but now three rooms have been regularly assigned, primary, intermediate and a higher grade, with work of about the grade of the first year high school. It is hoped that more students will come tonight, as the Association wants all who work in the day and are unable to complete their education at the regular school to take advantage of this splendid opportunity.

CONDITIONS CONTINUE QUIET

No Cases on the Docket of the Police Court This Morning and But One Complaint Noted

There were no cases before the Police Court this morning. But one complaint had been lodged during the past twenty-four hours, and that a minor one and chronic at this season of the year. Some boys had annoyed people residing in a certain neighborhood by setting on fire pyramids of leaves.

Such conditions speak well for the community at large, existing as they do at a time when more or less dissatisfaction had been anticipated from the passing of the city from the "wet" to the "dry" column.

ALEXANDRIA WRIT REFUSED

Decline to Review Grillbortzer Injunction as to City's Claim for Taxes

The Supreme Court of Appeals in Richmond yesterday refused to grant to the City Council of Alexandria a writ of error to the judgment of the Corporation Court of Alexandria which allowed David G. Grillbortzer a perpetual injunction restraining the enforcement of the city's claim for taxes on property in what was formerly a part of Fairfax county, owned by Grillbortzer and annexed by the City two months before the assessment of property for the current fiscal year.

BODY FOUND IN DEBRIS

Diver Finds Remains of One Victim of Air Bomb Tragedy.

A diver from the tug Triton of the Washington Navy Yard, searching yesterday in the debris of an aeroplane in the Potomac River, found the body of Lieut. Clarence King Bronson, who, with Lieut. Luther Welsh, was killed near Indian Head, Md., while experimenting in bomb throwing.

With the exception of a bruised eye, the body was not mutilated. It was taken to the naval dispensary, pending arrangements for interment in New York. No trace of Lieut. Welch's body was found.

Naval officers believe the explosion took place directly under Lieut Welsh as he threw the bomb from the machine. This theory was strengthened by the fact that Lieut. Bronson's body was not mangled.

Officials of the Navy Department said the search for Lieut. Welsh's body would be resumed. The only trace of his remains was found the afternoon of the tragedy, when a piece of mangled flesh was picked up in the Potomac.

Officers at Indian Head were inclined to place the blame for the explosion on faulty chemical composition of the bomb.

BOY'S LIFE TAKEN BY AUTO.

Wilmington, Del, Nov. 10.— One person was killed and several injured in automobile accidents in this city Wednesday night. The fatality was that of George Lenderman, aged 11 years, who died yesterday of internal injuries at the Delaware Hospital. The boy was running across the street at Eighth and Spruce streets when he was struck by an automobile. He was picked up and removed to his home, but a short time later his condition became such that he had to be sent to the hospital.

DEATH OF J. F. DOHERTY.

Old and Well-Known Resident Passes Away Suddenly Today.

James F. Doherty, who resided on Prince street, near Pitt, died about noon today. The deceased was about sixty years old. He had for a number of years been engaged in paperhanging in this city.

Mr. Doherty was a native of Ireland. He came to this country early in life, and many years ago came to Alexandria from North Carolina with his brother, John Doherty, the brothers being at that time interested in a barytes mill, which was located upon the site of the present electric light plant, at the foot of Wolfe street. They remained in Alexandria after the barystes plant had ceased to be operated.

Some one evidently running the "whisky blockade," of Virginia, which on the first of this month went dry, evidently lost his courage last night and abandoned three suit cases containing 150 pints of "Tea Kettle Whisky," put up in small tea kettles, as containers, on Southern Railway train No. 3. The property is at the baggage room of the Union Station, Washington, awaiting its owner.

The trainmen who came in on the train said that they recalled two men who had three suitcases, but do not know where they left the train. It is the belief of the detectives at the Union Station that the whisky was intended for sale at some point in Virginia but that the men "lost their nerve."

Little Girl Run Down While Crossing Street After School

Philadelphia, Nov. 10.— Running across Ridge avenue, at Crawford street, on her way home from school yesterday, Ivy Lowe, 6 years old, was run down and instantly killed by a north-bound trolley car. The front wheels of the car passed over the child's body, cutting it in half.

QUAKER CITY MASONS

One Hundred and Five Members of Craft Entertained by Alexandria-Washington Lodge Yesterday.

The banquet given the Masonic delegation from William L. Elkins lodge No. 646 of Philadelphia by the members of Alexandria-Washington lodge last evening proved most enjoyable to all participating. There were one hundred and five in the party from the Quaker city and every one was loud in their praise of the hospitality extended them by their Virginia brethren.

As a further token of their appreciation and memento of their trip, they will, within the near future, present to Alexandria-Washington lodge a handsome bronze tablet bearing the names of each of those who come here, which will be given a place in the lodge rooms as a permanent memorial..

The visit made by thePhiladelphians yesterday was really in payment of a visit which the Alexandria-Washington lodge made to William L. Elkins lodge about three years ago, and therefore, was the more enjoyable to all participating.

The local committee met the visitors at the Union Station in Washington yesterday at 11:30 with a flying squadron of 35 automobiles. They were first escorted to the Scottish Rite Temple in Washington, thence on a trip through Rock Creek park, around the speedway to Alexandria where lunch was served. Following this came a trip to Mount Vernon, where a photograph of the entire party was taken in front of the Washington Mansion. From there they journeyed to Pohick Church afterward returning to this city.

At the conclusion of the regular meeting of the Alexandria-Washington lodge last evening all proceeded to the Westminster Building where they were further entertained at a banquet which the visitors pronounced most enjoyable. Worshipful Master Charles Page Waller presided as toastmaster introducing the various speakers in his usual pleasing manner. The invocation was pronounced by the Rev. Dr. John Lee Allison.

Right Worshipful Henry Knox Field delivered the address of welcome, to which Worshipful Master Mardeross S. Gooloyan, of Philadelphia responded. Mr. Gooloyan assured their hosts of the pleasure their visit gave them and with what pleasant anticipations they had been looking forward to this trip. He said that they had decided to "go on a strike", and consequently "struck" 105 strong yesterday morning.

His speech was greatly enjoyed and brought forth impromptu remarks from Worshipful Master Waller for their hearty assurances of appreciation of the hospitality extended. Mr. Waller said the pleasure was mutual, Worshipful Master Waller then introduced Mr. J. W. Fernley, who gave a short talk. Right Worshipful Charles H. Callahan next responded to the toast "Washington." Mr. Callahan said he could not begin to do justice to such a subject, as volumes had been written on "Washington" and the subject could never be really covered, but he gave some interesting information about the homes near Mount Vernon, the old Pohick Church, and spoke of Hayfield as having been built by George Washington for Lund Washington, and a curious incident, that Lund Washington built the front porch and additions to Mt. Vernon. He also referred to the burning of Hayfield mansion, saying it was the only house built by George Washington.

At the conclusion of Mr. Callahan's speech, Worshipful Master Gooloyan announced that the visitors had a surplus in their treasury that is the "treasury" created for their trip, and wished to present the amount, twenty-five dollars, to the Ladies' Aid Society of the Second Presbyterian Church, which owns the Westminster Building.

Dr. Allison thanked the visitors for the gift to the Ladies' Aid Society, as woman's suffrage has not gained sufficient foothold in Alexandria for the women to "speak in meeting."

WILSON IS RE-ELECTED

California and New Mexico Enter Democratic Column, Giving Him 276 Votes

New York, Nov. 10—New Mexico this morning joined the Woodrow Wilson procession.

The three votes of that State added to the 269 already in the Wilson column—this figure included the thirteen from California— Makes Wilson's total 272.

New Hampshire and Minnesota now are the only two doubtful States and New Hampshire seems to have gone for Wilson also. Its four votes will make Wilson's total 276.

Governor Hughes has not yet conceded Wilson's victory and Chairman Willcox of the Republican National Committee declares the fight is not yet over.

The States of California, New Mexico and North Dakota, swinging into the Democratic column at midnight last night, make certain the re-election of Woodrow Wilson over Charles E. Hughes, with at least six electoral votes to spare.

The States of Minnesota and New Hampshire remain doubtful, with a strong trend toward the Democratic candidate.

Wilson has certainly carried 31 Northern, Southern and Western States, with 272 electoral votes. Hughes carried fourteen Eastern and Northern States and two Western States, with an electoral vote of 243.

California, which had wavered for two days between Wilson and Hughes settled all doubt as to the outcome of the election at 10 o'clock last night, when the lead of the President was increased so that with 190 districts missing his plurality was 3,112.

In New Mexico he took the lead from Hughes, and was 2,634 votes ahead, with 158 districts unreported.

At the same time North Dakota became sure for Wilson, and Wilson gains were reported in Minnesota and New Hampshire.

Returns from two late-reporting counties in West Virginia—Grant and Preston—increases the Hughes' total by more than 1,900, giving the Republican candidate a plurality in the State of 3,307 with only 131 precincts to be heard from.

The swing in the two counties to Hughes was the greatest of its kind since the count in this State began.

There is a possibility that even if Mr. Hughes carries West Virginia, as seems assured, he will receive only seven of the eight electoral votes, owing to the failure of officials in some counties to place the name of S. A. Scott, candidate for elector on their ticket.

In Kansas, Colorado, Montana, Washington, Oregon and California, where women also vote, Wilson was successful, but his plurality was not sufficiently large to indicate that the women voters supported him as a unit.

One of the unusual, if not unexpected, features of the result was that Mr. Wilson lost his own State of New Jersey, by more than 50,000, losing his own town and his own district. The Democratic candidate for Senator from New Jersey, James A. Martin, went down with the Wilson defeat.

California's thirteen electoral votes will be cast for Woodrow Wilson.

This was decided beyond the shadow of a doubt early last night when, with only sixty-five outlying precincts to be heard from, the tally showed Wilson with a lead of more than 3,000.

Out of the 5,870 precincts in the State, the 5,805 counted gave this vote: Wilson, 464,497; Hughes, 461,385.

At 8:30 o'clock last night Chairman Charles H. Rowell, of the Republican State Committee, conceded the election of Wilson.

John Ferguson, colored, of Summit, Va., who was recently sent on to the grand jury by the Police Court for attempting to carry whisky to Quantico, was released today, he having furnished bond in the sum of $100 for his appearance before the grand jury of the Corporation Court.

THE COCK THAT CROWED TOO SOON

The declaration that Woodrow Wilson, present incumbent of the White House, has undoubtedly been chosen to succeed himself, brings to mind a picture in a comic paper sixteen or seventeen years ago shortly after Admiral Dewey had returned to New York on his flagship Olympia. He was then the hero of the hour, as he had annihilated the Spanish fleet in Manila Bay. He was suggested for President by the republicans. While the admiral is a great naval officer, he was a novice in politics, and made a bad break by offering himself for President instead of awaiting the time for his friends to act. His precipitancy, to use a vulgarism, "cooked his goose," and in the convention later he did not stand the ghost of a chance.

The paper referred to represented the admiral as a rooster which had crowed too soon.

The declaration last night that California has cast her vote for Woodrow Wilson brings this picture to mind also the fact that the cock crowed too soon last Tuesday night. The love feast held in Mr. Hughes's home, where the would-be mistress of the White House kissed the former member of the Supreme Court Justice, while visions of becoming the first lady of the land danced before her, was too previous. Mrs. Wilson will play that part during the next four years.

A man in Waynesboro, Pa., was so enthused last Tuesday night over what he supposed was the election of Hughes that he gave a chicken supper to twenty-five of his friends.

Instead of such manifestations of enthusiasm lodges of sorrow are now being held in Hughes's strongholds, while great glee is naturally shown among Mr. Wilson's supporters.

It is gratifying to realize that the good sense of a majority of the people of the United States concluded to let well enough alone in the late Presidential election.

It is also gratifying to the greater number of the people of the country to know that by the outcome of the election Theodore Roosevelt has been furnished with a ticket for Salt River. He four years ago received a black eye, and met a genuine coupe de grace Tuesday.

Woodrow Wilson has shown himself to be the man of the epoch in which he lives. He is the second democratic President who has been elected to succeed himself, Andrew Jackson having previous to this week been the only American who had accomplished that feat.

The outcome of the campaign has shattered the hopes of many, especially the members of the republican party in Virginia, who had selected certain positions for themselves in the event of Hughes's election, which they imagined was a foregone conclusion. The plums had been duly apportioned among those who make themselves conspicuous every four years by raising the republican colors.

THE EIGHTH DISTRICT.

Everyone conceded that Honorable Charles C. Carlin, would succeed himself as Congressman from the Eighth Virginia district, but it is pleasant to note his great majority over his republican opponent. The official count shows that he received 5,734 votes over his antagonist. It was a walkover from start to finish. The fact that the voters of his district rolled up such a vote is the best indication that his course is affirmed by the great mass of his constituents. The republicans labored long to find something upon which an issue might be based in the case of President Wilson. They found nothing serious. The only semblance of an issue against Mr. Carlin in our Congressional district was prejudice, nothing else. "We don't want this man to reign over us," was about all that was urged among a corporal's guard of dissatisfied or disappointed suffragans. Some had thirsted for positions and were ready to knife one of the best representatives Alexandria district ever enjoyed because he could not accomplish the impossible.

Several years ago we recalled the words of the late Elisha Meredith, then representing this district in Congress. He was delivering a speech at the Opera House, during which he referred to the impossible demands made upon Congressmen. He said but one person had appeared upon the earth, so far, who could feed five thousand upon seven loaves and two fishes. John Goode, a Congressman from the Norfolk district, at one time, was present, and in following Mr. Meredith he referred to his words, and suggested to all present to show appreciation of what a representative has done and not hold him responsible for things beyond his reach.

It is useless for us to say that Mr. Carlin has accomplished much for his district, especially Alexandria, and his many friends now that he will ever be wide awake to the interests of the people he represents so well, and who are justly proud of him, believing him to be the right man in the right place.

CONDITIONS 32 YEARS AGO

The recent uncertainty as to the outcome of last Tuesday's election for President brings to the minds of many persons in Alexandria similar scenes in 1884, when all democrats were convinced that Grover Cleveland had been chosen as President. It, however, took several days to make positive announcement of this fact, and in the meantime republicans were working assiduously in hopes that the Hayes trick of several years before would be repeated and a republican seated notwithstanding the fact that a democrat had been chosen by the people. The result hinged on New York. The candidate who carried the Empire State was sure of election. Both parties claimed the state. The first dispatches sent out bore republican censorship, but eventually it was proven beyond all doubt that Grover Cleveland was the choice of the people. He had carried the state by a small majority; still it was a majority, and Jay Gould, who was averse to Cleveland, finally sent him a dispatch of congratulation. A few days later there was a celebration in Alexandria, at which an ox was barbecued in the northwestern section of the city, and there was a general turnout of the people.

There is in the Gazette office a large picture of the late John S. Barbour, then chairman of the state democratic committee and his staff during the campaign of 1883 which ended in the sepulcher of what was then known as the readjuster party of Virginia. This same political general and his staff had their headquarters in the old Farmers and Mechanics' Bank, on the north side of Prince street, between Royal and Pitt, during those days and the Presidential campaign which followed. The structure has recently been converted into a modern apartment house.

The picture shows John S. Barbour, Ham Sheppard (secretary of the committee), George W. Rock, Benjamin H. Lambert and W. W. Scott. The latter only survives. He was State Librarian.

Present conditions also reproduce memories of 1876 when Tilden the democratic candidate was undoubtedly elected President of the United States but one Rutherford B. Hayes was declared entitled to the executive chair by an electoral commission by a majority of one.

On the night of the election in 1876, when it was evident that the election was very close and Mr. Tilden was probably elected, Senator Zach Chandler, of Michigan, telegraphed to Republican papers in every part of the country: "Claim everything." Some of his political genus seem animated by his spirit now, notwithstanding figures show that Woodrow Wilson received a majority of the vote cast last Tuesday.

The returns from three States were in dispute, owing to different returns from different election tribunals. Hayes had to get every disputed vote in order to win, and it was quite certain that he wasn't entitled to any of them. It was evident that the two branches of Congress could never agree on the votes to be counted, and the Democrats were in no mood to be balked of the victory they believe they had won.

The Grant Administration anticipated violence and prepared for it and troops were sent to Washington.

Mr. Randall of Philadelphia understood perfectly that the country was on the verge of civil war, and he felt that a sacrifice of a party advantage was a smaller evil than that. He forced the bill for the Electoral Commission through a reluctant Democratic House. (Eppa Hunton representative in Congress from the Alexandria district, was a member of that commission.) But at the time it was assumed universally that Justice David Davis would be one of the members of the Tribunal. He was the only non-partisan on the Supreme Bench, and if he had gone on the Committee it would have stood seven Democrats, seven Republicans and Davis, who would have had the casting vote.

Justice Davis was not anxious to have this responsibility, and the Illinois Legislature, being then deadlocked over the election of John A. Logan, the Senatorship was offered to him and he took it. Justice Bradley was put on the Commission. No more intelligent and honorable men could be found in the United States than the members of that Commission, and yet every man of them, on every issue, voted on the evidence according to his party alliance, and everything was decided 8 to 7.

To the everlasting honor of the Democratic party, and of the whole country, peace was preserved, even when there was a disputed election and the man who almost certainly was not elected was made President. It was a supreme triumph of patriotism over partisanship; of order over violence.

SUCH VAPORINGS

Regarded as an Insult to the People.

New York, Nov. 10—Announcement that President Wilson had been re-elected by both popular and electoral pluralities was made at national Democratic headquarters last night at 11 o'clock. It followed a wild demonstration caused by receipt of a bulletin stating that Wilson had carried California.

Washington, Nov. 10—Government officials here were deeply interested in, and not a little concerned over, announcements from Democratic and Republican campaign leaders that contests might be expected, with a possibility of legal proceedings, over the votes for presidential electors in several close States.

Examination of the decisions of the Supreme Court and of the Revised Statutes disclosed that electors plainly are regarded as State officers. The highest court has held in two leading cases that questions of their proper or improper choice are for State election officers of State courts to determine, and that the Federal government is not lawfully concerned, even if fraud is shown.

CHOKED TO DEATH

Marshmallow Stuck in Child's Throat Causing Death

Philadelphia, Nov. 10—When a piece of candy stuck in her throat, last night, 2 year old Juanita Cotter, of No. 839 North Fifteenth street, strangled to death before she could be relieved in St. Joseph's Hospital. The child was sitting on the front steps of her home when a playmate gave her a marshmallow. The girl attempted to swallow the piece and it stuck in her throat.

In a few seconds she was writhing on the pavement and her mother was summoned. The parent picked up the girl and carried her to the hospital but when the institution was reached physicians found the child beyond aid.

VAINLY TURN BESIDE TRAIN

Autoists Who Can't Stop or Make Crossing, Die in Desparate Chance.

Altoona, Pa., Nov. 10—George B. Matthews and Frank S. Brumbaugh salesmen for a wholesale grocery firm at Philipsburg, were killed at a grade crossing three miles from Philiunburg yesterday by a Pennsylvania passenger train, while they were en route to Curwensville in an automobile.

They saw the train coming, and being unable either to stop or cross ahead of it, turned down the tracks, running parallel with the locomotive.

A high embankment caused the auto to upset, and they were thrown under the train.

Three negro laborers were bitten by a mad dog yesterday in Danville, on Broad street. The dog, a large black mastiff, was shot by a policeman and the head has been sent to Washington.

Seattle, Wash, Nov. 10.—With a lead of 600 in King county over her Republican rival ,Mrs., Frances C. Axtell, of Bellingham, still has a chance to win the Congressional election in the Second district. Congressman Hadley (Rep.), has only a slight lead in the count thus far in the entire district.

10 GERMANS BROUGHT DOWN.

French Air Pilots in Seventy-seven Fights in Day.

Paris, Nov. 10.—French aviators were engaged in seventy-seven air fights yesterday in which ten Germans were brought down, the war office announced today.

Otherwise activity was confined to intermittent cannonading and skirmishes at various points.

The banquet was served by the ladies who assisted at the recent Masonic Bazaar, instead of the Martha Washington Chapter, Eastern Star, as was erroneously stated in yesterday's Gazette. The ladies, who gave their most efficient service, are to be congratulated upon the manner in which they handled the banquet for it can truly be said that it was served without a "hitch". The tables looked beautiful with their long expanse of snowy linen, centerpieces of yellow chrysanthemums and yellow shaded candles. The attractive maids and matrons serving also added to the beauty of the scene.

HALF GERMAN VOTE FOR WILSON.

Milwaukee, Teutonic Center and Normally Republican, Went For President.

Chicago, Nov. 10.—Returns from the German strongholds of the Middle West today, show that the so-called "hyphen" vote did not figure as greatly in the election as was predicted in the campaign. It now seems it was divided about equally between Mr. Wilson and Mr. Hughes.

Milwaukee gave Wilson a plurality estimated at about 6,000. This was a great surprise, as it came in the face of a Republican majority for every State, legislature and county candidate, except the Socialist prosecutor. Milwaukee is normally Republican, and is regarded as the most German city in the country.

Seven counties in Wisconsin, however, all heavily populated with Germans reversed their Democratic majorities of 1912, and went for Hughes.

Ohio, a State of enormous German-American population, went for Wilson by 80,000 votes. In doing so, the State broke a political tradition of 50 years.

Cincinnati, almost as German in population as Milwaukee, gave Hughes a plurality of between 12,000 and 15,000. This is a far smaller plurality than the city normally gives to the Republicans. The great strength of the Democrats in Ohio was in the rural districts and small cities and towns.

St. Louis, another German stronghold, gave Hughes a plurality of nearly 10,000 but the State went for Wilson by about 30,000. Jackson county, in which Kansas City is located, gave Wilson a vote of 44,229 and Hughes 32,819.

Chicago went for Hughes, but the hyphen vote is not regarded here as a large factor in the Republican plurality.

Dr. Anna Howard Shaw, honorary president of the American Association for Equal Suffrage, was the central figure among many prominent suffragettes attending the State convention in Norfolk yesterday. So great was the crowd that waited to hear her speak last night at the Ghent Club that it was necessary to close the doors of the large auditorium to guard against further congestion, and she was compelled to speak to two different audiences.

The features of yesterday morning's session of the Women's Missionary Union of the Baptist Church in Clifton Forge, were addresses by Miss Ethel Wingfield, leader of the Young Women's Association in Virginia, and by Dr. Warren, of Atlanta, secretary of the Baptist home mission board. Dr. Warren spoke on the "Church Building Loan Fund," Miss Wingfield took as her subject "Training for World-Wide Service".

Miss Ruby Ellett, daughter of E. J. Ellett, a prominent citizen of Pocahontas, committed suicide yesterday in Kenbridge, by shooting herself through the head with a pistol near the public school, where she was employed as teacher. Miss Ellett was abouty 20 years of age. She was of an unusually cheerful disposition and friends cannot assign a reason for her act.

The monument that is to be erected in front of the courthouse in Winchester to commemorate the valor and self-sacrifice of the men and women who served the Confederate cause, has arrived and is now being put into position. Announcement is made that the unveiling exercises will take place on Wednesday, November 15, at 11 a. m. The oration on that occasion will be delivered by Hon. Harry St. George Tucker, of Lexington, Va.

William Wallace, a farmer of Altavista, died yesterday in Danville, from a fractured skull received in a railway accident at Altavista Wednesday. Despite the warning blast of a Southern fast train, the farmer drove his mule on a crossing and was tossed many yards when the pilot struck the wagon, which was shattered and the mule killed. Wallace was placed on the train and taken to a Danville hospital, where he died without gaining consciousness.

DEMOCRATS CLAIM CALIFORNIA

New York, Nov. 9. —A telegram received at Democratic headquarters from O. K. Cushing Democratic State chairman of California, stated that the Republicans claimed southern California by 20,000.

"I don't think the lead can exceed 17,500," said the telegram, "but even conceding them Southern California by 20,000, we will carry the State by 10,000.

New York, Nov. 9.—"Information received up to 4 a. m. today, we are absolutely sure of California, North Dakota and New Mexico," National Democratic Chairman McCormick declared today.

"We are making a fight for Minnesota," he added, "and are satisfied it is ours."

WOULD WORK FOR PEACE

Germany is Ready to Join World League Move After War.

Berlin, Nov. 10—Chancellor von Bethmann-Hollweg announced yesterday that after the ending of the war Germany would co-operate in an endeavor to find a practical means for procuring a lasting peace by means of an international league.

In an address, which was a reply to the speech of Earl Grey, the British Foreign Secretary, made in the House of Commons recently, the Chancellor said:

"Germany will honestly co-operate in examination of every endeavor to find a practical solution and will collaborate for its possible realization. This all the more if the war, as we expect and trust, shall create political conditions that do full justice to the free development of all nations, of small as well as great nations. Then the principle of justice and free development, not only on the Continent, but also on the seas, must be made valid. This, to be sure ,Lord Grey did not mention."

The Chancellor pointed out that Lord Grey's ideas in regard to international guarantees of peace seemed to possess a peculiar character in that they took into consideration only British wants. Neutrals, which, during the war, had to accept in silence British domination of the seas were to form a union after the war when, England hopes, she will have conquered Germany, in order to guarantee that the British plans will prevail under the new condition.

The Chancellor said it was known on reliable authority that in 1915 Great Britain and France promised to Russia dictatorial domination of Constantinople, the Bosphorus and the west shore of the Dardanelles, with the Hinterland, and that Asia Minor should be divided among the Entente Powers. These plans he continued probably were of interest for neutrals, who were expected to guarantee this order of things. The British Government, he asserted, had kept silent in regard to these plans, in spite of questions asked in Parliament.

"Such a policy of brute force," the Chancellor added, "cannot be the basis of an efficient international league for peace. These are the plans of our enemies for annexation, to which must be added Alsace and Lorraine; while I have never designated the annexation of Belgium as our intention when I spoke about the aims of the war.

"The first condition for the evolution of international relations by way of arbitration and peaceful compromise of conflicting interests ought to be that no more aggressive coalitions be formed," the Chancellor continued. "Germany is at all times ready to enter a league of peace which will restrain the perturbator of peace.

"Lord Grey says that Germany, with her first offer of Belgian and French integrity, wanted to purchase from England permission to take of the French colonies whatever she pleased. Even to the most insane person in Germany it never occurred to assault France in order to rob her of her colonies. It was not this which was Europe's doom, but the fact that the British Government favored French and Russian plans of conquest, which could not be obtained without a European war."

PLANS RECOUNT OF BALLOTS

Wickersham to Lead Republican Legal Battle.

New York, Nov. 10—Republicans last night began marshalling their forces for the great legal battle they will wage for the Presidency.

George W. Wickersham, attorney general of the United States in the Taft Cabinet, was placed in charge of the legal forces. He has already begun the collection of evidence on which to base contests in States that went to Wilson by small pluralities.

Chairman Willcox, has made this announcement:

"No matter who wins, every vote should be counted as cast. We shall demand a recount in every State where the result was so close that ignorance or the mistake of election officials might change it.

"I am glad to see the Democrats are no longer making charges that the Republicans are trying to buy the election. I am sure the Democratic managers now appreciate that any such charges were a mistake and should never have been made.

"We shall bring no contest on technicalities. We shall undoubtedly seek a recount which will insure the accuracy of the count in at least four States—California, North Dakota, New Hampshire, and New Mexico."

Chairman Willcox and Mr. Wickersham during the afternoon conferred with Mr. Hughes at the Hotel Astor.

After consideration of the matter of possible necessity for contesting the vote in several States, Chairman McCormick said last night he thought President Wilson's re-election would be so conclusive that such action would not be required.

"The President has won fairly and squarely," he said, "and I see no need now for contests. Of course, the various State chairmen and their organizations have been told to go ahead and take such action as they deem necessary for safeguarding the ballots, but no specific orders have been given as to any State.

"We have got to be convinced of crooked work before we do anything. Every county in safeguarded by a committee of lawyers, acting under the direction of the national committee. In New Hampshire these lawyers are already on the job."

NEWS OF THE DAY

Dr. von Bethmann-Hollweg, the German imperial chancellor, made a speech yesterday afternoon before the main committee of the Reichstag, holding Russia, England and France jointly responsible for the war. Russia brought on hostilities, the Chancellor said, by mobilizing her army on the frontier, but the Russian government had the promise of support from both France and England. In fact, declared the Chancellor, England encouraged Russia, to take steps which, it was well known, would lead to war.

Democrats will have a majority of twelve in the United States Senate in the sixy-fifth Congress, according to the returns from all parts of the country received up to midnight last night.

The complexion of the next Senate will be: Democrats, 54; Republicans, 42. Control of the House is still in doubt.

One hundred thousand dollars was offered in the lobby of the New York Stock Exchange yesterday afternoon at even money that Hughes had carried California. So far as could be learned only a small part of it was covered. Odds on Wilson's re-election were quoted at 2 to 1, in the Stock Exchange corridors and at 10 to 7 on the curb.

A dispatch from Berlin says Prince Henry of Bavaria, a nephew of King Louis, is dead.

James Wickersham, independent Republican, delegate to Congress from Alaska for many years, appears to have been defeated for re-election by Charles Sulzer, Democrat, a brother of former Governor William Sulzer, of New York, according to late dispatches. With all the towns heard from, the Democratic territorial committee claims the election of Sulzer by more than 400 plurality. Both the liquor men and the Prohibitionists of Alaska were amazed by the large vote in favor of the Prohibition law, which was ratified Tuesday. It is said every town in Alaska gave a majority for the bill.

Details of the operations of entente aerial squadrons in their raids in southern Germany Thursday are given in supplementary reports issued yesterday by the German war office. The attacks are declared to have been carried out by from 40 to 50 machines, but it is asserted that no military damage was done. A total of seven persons killed and more than a score injured was the extent of the casualties, says the statement.

Lewis H. Harwetel, a farmer of near Ladiesburg, Md., was killed Wednesday in a runaway accident. The horse ran down a hill and Harwetel was thrown from the wagon. He sustained three broken ribs and was injured internally. He was taken to his home, where he died a few hours later. Harwetel was a native of Baden, Germany.

Floors that will stand hard usage

POPULAR MECHANIC AGAIN ON HIS FEET

The Many Friends of Wm. F. Baggett Will be Glad to Hear of his Improvement in Health

When it is required of a man to do a "man sized day's work" its a right serious departure when that man is stricken with rheumatism. Mr. Wm. F. Baggett residing at 4015 Lawson Street, Richmond, Va., said:

"I was suffering from rheumatism pains and stiff joints, the pains being more intense in my legs than elsewhere. When I got up in the morning I felt so stiff and badly, simply filled with pains all over, it was about impossible to do anything before I gave myself a vigorous rubbing down. I read in the papers of many people being helped by Tanlac and I decided to give the medicine a trial. Before finishing the first bottle I began to feel better and my wife commented upon my improvement. Now, after the second bottle has been finished, all pains have disappeared, my appetite has improved, I am feeling fine and am again able to do a 'Man's sized days work'. I now recommend Tanlac because I want other sufferers to give this medicine a trial. If they will only give it a fair trial I am sure it will help them as it has me."

Tanlac is on sale here at Alexandria by Leadbeater Drug Corporation and at Falls Church by G. T. Mankin and Co.

JAPAN SHUTS GERMAN BANK

Yokohama, Nov. 9.—The Yokohoma branch of the Deutsch-Asiatische Bank has been closed by order of the Japanese Government and all its business suspended. This shutting up of the only German bank in Japan will seriously affect German prisoners of war whose deposits formed the largest part of the business. It is estimated that deposits of about 4000 German prisoners are locked up until the official ban on the institution is removed, which probably, will not be until the closing of the war. The total deposits by Germans are estimated to be 3,000,000 yen, or about 1,500,000.

Japanese papers which led a campaign last spring for more vigorous measures against German residents and German institutions in Japan express satisfaction over the closing of the bank.
